

Differential assessment: the various body segments and systems

- The presentation of the differential balance by the different parts of the body and system with concepts (TCM, Osteopathy, etc.).
- Introduction of the use of Differential Manual Therapy and Chinese Medicine Differential (TCM) to establish a balance sheet that best targets the client's needs at the time of the session
- Occurs on about 7 to 8 modules, in relation to the different segments of the body (in connection with anatomy, physiology, etc..)

Training location: Vevey 1800, Switzerland

Date: 3 days of continuing education

- the dates will be indicated on news-event website and registration
- the dates will be indicated on site booking online and registration possible

Time: 9:00 to 17:00 from Saturday to Monday or from Friday to Sunday

General

Target audience:

Any professional wishing to specialize in differential balance Holders of health training or movement science, holders of a complementary or alternative training in health and care.

Training Objective:

Understand the various balance sheet tools to exclude emergencies Develop, using clinical cases, demonstrations, test interpretations and implementation practical situation of the following subjects

- Review with an approach to Chinese medicine

This training is interactive and as practical as possible, spaces for discussion are provided.

Practical workshops

During this training, practical workshops will be offered

- manual assessment workshop with the appropriate exclusion tests
- Global Treatment Workshop
- workshop on special cases

Information : On the website: Training www.1-centre-sos.com/cours

Registrations possible by the site: news-event and further information: email: 1.centre.s.o.s@gmail.com

Registration deadlines: Date 2 months before the start of the course

Number of places limited to about 10 people per course

Course fee : CHF 750.00 - for 3 days (including coffee breaks, meals and parking or Transportation)

Your payment confirms your registration and is to be paid 2 months before the start date of the course on the account of the association. A RIB or payment slip with IBAN will be sent to participants upon registration.